

EKCC CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Code of Conduct is a set of guidelines for players, parents, coaches, & volunteers to ensure that the game is played positively, in the spirit of fair play, & with respect for all involved. The following rules must be strictly followed:

- Respect for Players & Officials: All players, officials, & coaches must show respect for each other, display sportsmanship, & maintain the highest standards of ethical behaviour.
- No Abusive Language: Players must refrain from using abusive language or behaviour towards their opponents, umpires, or officials, which includes gestures as well. This is unacceptable & strictly prohibited.
- Respect for the Rules: All players must abide by the rules & regulations set forth by the ICC, the national cricket board, & the specific tournament rules.
- Respect for Opponents: It is important to acknowledge the efforts of the opponents, shake hands after the match, & find positive things to say about their game.
- Safety: Players must take all necessary precautions to ensure the safety of themselves, other players, & officials, & not cause any injury to the opponents deliberately.
- No Cheating: Cheating, including but not limited to ball-tampering, sledging, appealing & pressuring the officials, must be avoided at all times.
- Avoiding Verbal Altercations: In situations where there may be disagreements or disputes, players, coaches, & officials must try to resolve them amicably & calmly, not indulge in any kind of verbal altercation & maintain a friendly atmosphere.
- Equipment: All equipment must be used only for its proper purposes. In the event of any damage, the team must ensure that it is repaired or replaced promptly.
- Spectators: The team & the officials should ensure that the spectators follow the guidelines & maintain sportsmanship in their behaviour.
- Enforcement of the Code: All team players, coaches, parents, & officials must always ensure adherence to this Code of Conduct. In case of any violation of the rules, the officials may take disciplinary action under the competition rules.

By following this Code of Conduct, we can ensure that the game will be played positively, with respect, & in the spirit of fair play, with all players enjoying the game to its fullest potential.
